A LOVE STORY

The parent of one of our struggling families asked for help in getting Christmas presents for her children. A Sunday School class adopted the family and provided gifts for the children. Both the children and the parent were very grateful and appreciative.

On the other hand, the class had a great time sharing in the life of this family, showing them love and joy by shopping, buying, wrapping, and delivering gifts, not so unlike the visitors to the family staying in the stable long ago.
